

TURKISH INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY SOCIETY (TIPES)

2nd International Conference, December 9, 2016

Sabancı University & Istanbul Policy Center

CALL for PAPERS

The Turkish International Political Economy Society (TIPES) invites you to the second interdisciplinary conference which will take place at Minerva Han, Karaköy, Istanbul on December 9, 2016. The conference is organized by Sabancı University and Istanbul Policy Center (IPC) in collaboration with Globalization, Peace and Democratic Governance Center (GLODEM) at Koç University and Bilkent University.

TIPES conferences aim to build a platform for a stimulating discussion, collaborative research and networking between a wide range of participants—junior and senior faculty, graduate students and researchers who work on comparative and international political economy as well as political economy of Turkey.

This year's conference will feature a keynote speech by Prof. Fuat Keyman (Sabancı University). It will be organized based on simultaneously running sessions which will host discussants and each paper will be assigned 30 minutes (15 minutes for presentation and 15 minutes for discussion). The abstracts for proposed papers should be detailed, but should not exceed 500 words. Please send your abstracts and papers to M. Kerem Çoban: m.keremcoban@u.nus.edu

- Deadline for submitting abstracts : November 11, 2016
- Deadline for submitting papers : December 1, 2016

The preliminary program will be announced by November 25, 2016. Please forward this announcement to interested colleagues and graduate students. Further updates will be available at <https://glodem.ku.edu.tr/events/upet>
